Docket No. SE 2015-315

ORDER

The Secretary of Labor has filed an unopposed motion to stay briefing to allow for settlement discussions. The Secretary represents that, if it becomes apparent that an amicable settlement will not be reached, the parties will promptly notify the Commission no later than November 1, 2016.

Accordingly, briefing is stayed pending settlement discussions. Upon notification that the settlement discussions have not been successful, the Secretary shall have 30 days to file his response brief.

For the Commission:
